

GO2EDUCATE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

INFORMATION FOR REGISTERED USERS/MEMBERS & BUYERS

As a user of the GO2Educate Website you agree that you will not upload, post or complete any of the following actions:

- (1) Content that is unlawful, threatening, abusive, offensive or discriminatory in any way
- (2) Content which refers to other individuals, organisations or companies
- (3) Collect or store data about other registered users
- (4) Software viruses or other computer code that interrupts or damages functionality of the site
- (5) Copy, modify or reproduce content produced by GO2Educate or Associates on the site (with the exception of Site License e-resources – details of what purchasers are allowed to do are clearly outlined in the description)
- (6) Intentionally or unintentionally break any legislations or laws

When buyers purchase a course, e-resource, product or service with GO2Educate they are required to provide details and consent to allow us to distribute these. This may include your name, address, user name and password. We recommend you choose a strong password, minimum 8 digits with a mixture of Uppercase, Lowercase, Numbers and Special Characters. Personal bank account details are processed separately through PayPal's secure server.

On purchase or registration as a user (if you have pre-registered with a view to making purchases later or becoming a vendor) you are automatically registered and added to the FREE MEMBERSHIP package to allow you to access automated discounts and other membership benefits. *You have the option to delete your membership at any time when logged in as a member *This is accessible from the Membership Account Page via the FREE MEMBERSHIP drop-down. If you choose to delete your membership, you will be automatically deleted from the site.

It is the registered user's responsibility to provide accurate, complete and updated information about themselves, as prompted by the relevant registration form/s. We may terminate your account if any information you provide is inaccurate, false or incomplete. It is the user's responsibility to maintain username and password confidentiality and activities completed under their password or account. Users should log-off when they are finished with their activities on the site (working on a course, browsing or making a purchase). You agree to notify us immediately if there has been unauthorised use of your account. We reserve the right to de-activate accounts that are inactive for an extended period of time.

E-resources, courses and membership content is written by GO2Educate & Associates, but owned by GO2Educate. Physical products sold on the site are owned by Associates (labelled on site as Vendors) who have permission to sell them via the site with an agreed commission rate. While quality checks take place and guidance is provided to associates, GO2Educate do not take any personal responsibility for the price, quality, content or distributions of physical product orders and purchases. While associates are permitted to advertise tutoring services on the tutoring page, tutoring (other than provided by GO2Educate) is the associate's own private business. Associate Vendors have accepted and signed terms and conditions to accept full legal responsibility as the seller of any physical products and personal tutoring services. Any customer queries or complaints with regards to e-resources, courses and memberships should be emailed to info@homeschoolondemand.com. Product and 1-1 tutoring queries will be re-directed to associates as required. However, for: content, products, courses and e-resources that do not fit with the GO2Educate ethos or discovered to be inappropriate; GO2Educate have the right to remove these and the associate from the site.
